The full work of this initiative is available for download below, in two sections:

- A 16 page Consensus Document providing the context for this work, outlining promising practices for equity, diversity, and inclusion in PPSR, and offering next steps for the field to advance this work.
- A separate document including the case studies which informed the promising practices and next steps.

Summaries of each of the promising practices, illustrated with excerpts from the case studies, are available on this website. Also available are more details about this initiative, the team of collaborators, and the organizations and programs included in these case studies.

---

Download Consensus Document (393 KB)

Download Case Studies (492 KB)

---

Citizen science, volunteer monitoring, participatory action research... this site supports organizers of all initiatives where public participants are involved in scientific research.

More about this...